Description

This is a stunning structure that can not be missed looking when visiting Platres village in Limassol. The property is set on the top of the mountain facing the village, but having also breathtaking views to the surrounded mountains and the sea. The area's most expensive home sits on more than 40.000 m2 of land, 500 m away from the village center. What makes the home all the more special is the motto which the owners thought in starting building, “We wanted to build something that would last hundreds of years.”. The house features of the basement with multiple bedrooms for the staff. On the ground floor there are 5 rooms that can be converted into bedrooms with there own en-suite and huge living rooms for a comfort every day living. It's ceiling reaches 7 meters high, giving the taste of elegance and grace of each room. In addition, the property features of an indoor swimming pool, private driveway to the entrance of the house and covered parking areas. The size of the house including the surrounding land gives the opportunity for the new buyers to convert it into a Luxury Hotel, small holiday villas resort with spa services or even a small private village with holiday apartments. A must be seen property to understand its greatness and value.
