Description

This amazing three bedroom house will make you feel as if you are living on palace grounds, located in Aradippou Larnaca close to all amenities just off the roundabout near Kliema. The property itself is sitting on 660sqm worth of land, internally the house is 390sqm giving you all the space you would ever need. The property consists of three spacious bedrooms with one being an en-suite with a walk-in wardrobe and spacious bathroom, one guest toilet downstairs and one main bathroom upstairs excluding the en-suite giving three WCs in total. A/C and central heating included all through out the property too. Aluminum shutters are all around the house and are controlled electronically. The property has its very own installed sauna on the first floor in its own dedicated room. The whole house has a very detailed, unique design with high quality materials and furniture too. It has a separate spacious kitchen with an island in the middle and two separate living areas and two separate dining areas. Also to mention its very own covered private garage area which can be driven into from the side of the house with access from within the house too and can fit up to two cars but the driveway outside can accommodate another 3-4 cars. Furthermore, outside you have a generous amount of space which includes a private swimming pool, barbecue area and also an outdoor bar area too. Ideal a place to relax and unwind with friends or family. Overall, this property is a very rare find in Larnaca and is definitely worth a viewing.
