Description

This luxury villa is located in Anarita and is an exceptional opportunity for a foreign family who is looking for citizenship. Anarita is a beautiful village where you will find taverns, old churches, the Elioudia Botanic Park, the Kapparovounos Park and the water dam of Asprokremmos. The property is a five minute drive away from airport, ten minute drive from the centre of Paphos and thirty minute drive from Limassol. This villa is designed in a traditional Cypriot style with special attention to detail and quality. It has four commodious bedrooms and a wonderful room full of wardrobes.There is also a Maids Quarters fully equipped. The villa is fully furnished with the highest quality furniture and it also has all the amenities that a family needs such as air conditioning, central heating, cable TV, and internet. A large kitchen with all white goods included and five ceramic tiled bathrooms complete this luxurious property. Easy access through the patio doors leads to a covered sitting area, a barbeque area and the private swimming pool which is surrounded by a well-maintained mature garden. It also has a sunbathing area which offers view to the sea and to the mountain as well as a storage. The covered area of the villa is 450m2 where the plot size of the property is approximately 6000m2.
